

Short Research Presentation Rubric

Presenter Name: _____

Level: UG/G

Evaluation Criteria
Category	Below Expectations (0 - 3)	Adequate (3 - 5)	Good (6 - 8)	Exemplary (9 - 10)	Total
Content and Knowledge	Information not presented clearly, concisely, nor logically. Ideas unsupported. Inappropriate.	Information not always clear, and line of reasoning not always easy to follow. Information and ideas mostly appropriate.	Presents all the pertinent information, clearly, concisely, and logically. Focuses on the most appropriate information.	Presents all the pertinent information clearly, concisely, and logically. Focuses on the most appropriate information. Includes well-articulated, innovative, and creative ideas.
Organization and Structure	Presentation jumps among disconnected topics; main points unclear Does not contain the information required. Missing introduction and conclusion. Very significantly over or under time.	Main points clearly stated, Introduction and conclusion unclear. Unbalanced in terms of time management – too much time on one topic, too little on another. Significantly over or under time ( $\pm 1$ minute)	Main points must be inferred by audience; audience can follow presentation, but holes are evident. Timing well organized. Slightly over or under time ( $\pm 30$ seconds)	Main points clearly stated and explained; logical, smooth organization. Timing well organized. Innovative and effective. On time (5 min)
Quality of Visual and Oral Communication	Speaking unclearly or without confidence. Awkward pauses. Text and figures unreadable.	Reading from the slides. Suitable speaking volume, but poor choice of wording (e.g. non-technical or vague). Text and figures are mostly readable but not all are effective.	Audible, understandable, confident and appropriate technical language. Text and figures readable and effective.	Audible, understandable, confident and appropriate technical language. Compelling and convincing. Text and figures readable and effective.
Total Score ( /30)					